1 Receiver makes this “true report[s] in summary form of the insurer’s affairs under the receivership and 2 of progress being made in accomplishing the objectives of the receivership.” NRS 696B.290(7).

4 INTRODUCTION

5 Spirit Commercial Auto Risk Retention Group, Inc. (“Spirit” or the “Company”) is an association
6 captive insurance company organized under the insurance laws of Nevada and the Liability Risk 7 Retention Act of 1986. Spirit received its Certificate of Authority on February 24, 2012, and operates 8 under the authority of NRS Chapter 694C. Spirit transacted commercial auto liability insurance business.
9 Within that line, Spirit specialized in serving commercial truck owners.

10 Pursuant to NRS 679A.160, Spirit is subject to Nevada laws in Chapters 694C and 695E that 11 pertain to captive insurers (as “captive insurer” is defined in NRS 694C.060) and risk retention groups 12 (as “risk retention group” is defined in NRS 695E.110) that have a Certificate of Authority from the 13 Division. Spirit is considered an association captive insurer (as “association captive insurer” is defined 14 in NRS 694C.050). As a risk retention group (“RRG”), Spirit is subject to the Federal Liability Risk 15 Retention Act of 1986. RRGs domiciled in Nevada do not participate in the Nevada Guaranty 16 Association. Pursuant to NRS 695E.140(1)(a), Spirit is also subject to all laws that pertain to traditional 17 liability insurers (with exceptions given in Bulletin 14-008).

18 As discussed in the Receiver’s First Status Report, Spirit is part of an Insurance Holding 19 Company System and in large part it only did business with other members of that system. CTC 20 Transportation Insurance Services of Missouri, LLC (“CTC”), with offices in Missouri, New Jersey, and 21 California, served as the program administrator and managing general agent for Spirit. Criterion Claims 22 Solutions of Omaha, Inc. (“Criterion”) was the third-party claims administrator for Spirit. Lexicon 23 Insurance Management LLC was the captive manager for the company (after Risk Services initially 24 served in that role through circa July 2018). Chelsea Financial Group, Inc. provided premium financing 25 services for the majority of Spirit’s policies. The company 10-4 Risk Management provided risk 26 management and loss run services. The owner or ultimate controlling person for each of these entities 27
28

1 is or was Thomas Mulligan.² All of these companies were taking a portion of the premium dollars from 2 Spirit-issued policies.

3 The Commissioner initially filed a petition to put the Company into receivership on January 11, 4 2019, and efforts to protect the policyholders, and other creditors, of the estate, were contested
5 vigorously by the Company. On February 27, 2019, this Court entered its Permanent Receivership
6 Order. Barbara D. Richardson, Commissioner of Insurance, in her capacity as Receiver for Spirit 7 appointed the firm of CANTILO & BENNETT, L.L.P. as the Special Deputy Receiver of the Companies.
8 The “Receiver” and “Special Deputy Receiver” are referred to collectively herein as the “Receiver.”

9 In brief, the Permanent Receivership Order established the following key points for the Spirit 10 receivership:

- 11 1) that the Company’s in-force insurance policies are to be canceled effective on the earlier 12 of April 15, 2019, or the date when the insured ceased making premium payments to 13 Spirit;
- 14 2) that the Receiver may impose a full suspension on all disbursements owed by Spirit, 15 including insurance policy disbursements, and costs related to the defense or adjudication 16 of insurance policy claims;
- 17 3) that the receivership court has exclusive jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to Spirit 18 and all persons are enjoined from commencing, bringing, maintaining, or further 19 prosecuting any action at law, suit in equity, arbitration, or special or other proceeding 20 against the Company, Receiver, or Special Deputy Receiver;
- 21 4) that the Receiver is vested with exclusive title both legal and equitable to all of Spirit’s 22 property wherever located, to administer under the general supervisions of the Court;
- 23 5) that the Receiver may change to her own name, the name of any of Spirit’s accounts, 24 funds, or other property or assets, held with any bank, savings and loan association, other 25 financial institution, or any other person, wherever located, and may withdraw such 28 ² See Schedule Y: Part 1A, to the Company’s 2018 Annual Statement, the “Detail of Insurance Holding Company System” (the Receiver’s First Status Report, Ex. B).

1 funds, accounts and other assets from such institutions or take any lesser action necessary 2 for the proper conduct of the receivership; and

- 3 6) that the Receiver is authorized to establish a receivership claims and appeal procedure, 4 for all receivership claims. The receivership claims and appeals procedures shall be used 5 to facilitate the orderly disposition or resolution of claims or controversies involving the 6 receivership or the receivership estate.

7 On September 16, 2019, the Receiver filed a consolidated motion for a Final Order Placing Spirit
8 Commercial Auto Risk Retention Group into Liquidation, and for an Order Setting a Claims Filing 9 Deadline, and Granting Related Relief (the “Consolidated Motion”). The Consolidated Motion was 10 heard and granted on October 24, 2019. On November 6, 2019, the Court entered its Final Order Placing 11 Spirit into Liquidation (the “Liquidation Order”) and its Final Order Setting Claims Filing Deadline for 12 Spirit and Related Relief (the “Claims Order”). The Claims Order established a Claims Filing Deadline, 13 and procedures for filing claims against Spirit. The Liquidation Order also granted the Receiver’s 14 request to formally place Spirit into liquidation effective on November 6, 2019. On September 30, 2020, 15 the Court entered an Order Extending the Claims Filing Deadline for Spirit Commercial Auto Risk
16 Retention Group, Inc. The Claims Filing Deadline was extended to May 31, 2021, and has now expired.

17 II.

18 RECEIVERSHIP ADMINISTRATION

19 A. Notice of Developments in Receivership

20 On August 19, 2019, the Court entered its Order Regarding Motion for Instructions Including 21 Notice Requirements (the “Notice Order”). Future notices about Spirit’s receivership will be provided 22 to interested parties in accordance with the Court’s Notice Order. Interested parties may also monitor 23 the Spirit receivership web site (www.spiritinsure.com) to keep up to date about developments in the 24 receivership.

25 B. Claims Administration and Third-Party Support Services

26 TRISTAR Risk Management (“TRISTAR”) is assisting the Receiver in evaluating the Proofs of 27 Claim (“POCs”) that have been received. TRISTAR’s initial work for the estate included an evaluation 28

1 of the outstanding policy claims liabilities of the estate. TRISTAR’s work in this regard is detailed in 2 the Sixth Status Report and exhibits thereto. TRISTAR has since assisted the Receiver in evaluating and 3 determining the POCs filed in the Spirit estate. Through the appeals phase of the claims process for the 4 estate (i.e., as claimants submit appeals of the Receiver’s claim determinations), TRISTAR will evaluate 5 the appeal submissions from claimants and make recommendations to the Receiver regarding proposed 6 resolutions of such appeals. The Receiver anticipates that it will continue to utilize TRISTAR’s 7 assistance for claims matters, until all claims and appeals of the estate are resolved. The Receiver will 8 continue to evaluate the need for TRISTAR’s assistance and will continue to report TRISTAR’s ongoing 9 work for the estate.

10 The Claims Filing Deadline expired on May 31, 2021. There were one thousand four hundred 11 five (1,405) timely POC submissions received.

12 The Receiver is evaluating the claims against the estate and has begun mailing written Notices 13 of Claim Determination to claimants — and these notices advise claimants of whether their claims are 14 approved (in full or in part) or denied. Approximately one thousand one hundred seventy-three (1,173)
15 Notices of Claim Determination have been completed and mailed to the claimants to date. The Receiver 16 has posted a status update (i.e., advising that POCs are in the process of being evaluated) to the home
17 page of the Spirit receivership web site. Approximately sixty-two (62) appeals of the Receiver’s claim 18 determinations have been received to date. We are enclosing a report on the determination of the 19 Receiver on each claim approved in whole or in part through September 1, 2023, as well as a report of 20 each claim determination to which an objection has been filed³ pursuant to NRS 696B.330(6-8). A copy
21 of the claims report, without the names of the claimants, is being submitted as Exhibit 1 to this report.⁴

22 The Order Granting Motion to Establish Claims Appeal Process and Procedure and for the 23 Appointment of a Special Master to Assist with the Same was entered on March 3, 2023. The Order 24 appoints two Special Masters to preside over appeal hearings, and sets out the procedures for such

25 _____
26 ³ The report on these objections will be updated to reflect the Court’s determination of each objection once hearings have been held, pursuant to NRS 696B.330, and final orders are entered by the Court thereon.

27 ⁴ Individual claimant names have been removed from the public document out of concern for privacy. Exhibit 1 28 submitted to the Court for in camera review includes claimants’ names.

1 appeals, as well as the procedure for certain other appeals which are to be reviewed by the receivership 2 court. Counsel for the Receiver is working with the Special Masters to schedule appeal hearings and 3 briefing schedules. As claims are scheduled for hearing, counsel for the Receiver is notifying claimants 4 of the time and place for the hearing of their objections, as well as the briefing schedule and where 5 appropriate work with claimants to try and resolve the appeals without the need for a hearing. Since the 6 appeal process with the Special Masters commenced, the Receiver has resolved or is working to resolve 7 twelve of the appealed claims, hearings have been held on six appealed claims⁵, and two additional 8 appealed claims are scheduled for hearing in October. As appeals are resolved through the hearing 9 process, the Receiver will update the claim and appeal report exhibits to the status report to reflect the 10 appeal resolution and the final determination of the claims. The above-referenced motions and orders 11 have been posted to the receivership web site, www.spiritinsure.com (“Receivership Documents” tab).

12 The United States has filed a POC in the receivership, asserting the priority of its claims—if any 13 (they are unknown at this time according to the POC)—over and above any other claims against the 14 estate pursuant to 31 U.S. Code § 3713, also known as the government “superpriority” statute. The 15 Receiver sent letters to the United States to provide a reminder that its claim must be complete, non-16 contingent, and liquidated in amount on or before the May 31, 2021, deadline. No amendment or 17 supplement from the United States has been received as of the date of this report. The Receiver has also 18 written to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (“CMS”), seeking policy guidance regarding 19 the applicability of certain claim reporting requirements for the Spirit receivership. CMS has yet to 20 respond, but the Receiver will continue to seek direct input from the agency to clarify the regulatory 21 requirements for the Spirit estate.

22 The policy data of Spirit is held in the Aspire Information System (“Aspire”), which was created 23 by Maple Technologies. The Receiver believes that this system is still of value to the receivership, 24 particularly during the pendency of the POC process and certain litigation matters. At the outset of the 25 receivership, the Receiver worked with Maple Technologies to continue Spirit’s pre-receivership 26

27 ⁵ Counsel for the Receiver submitted proposed Findings of Fact for Appeal SP-000466 to the Court on July 27, 28 2023 and is working with the Special Masters and anticipates submitting additional proposed findings of facts in the near term.

1 arrangement. The Receiver has re-negotiated a lower monthly cost to maintain the Receiver’s access to 2 the Aspire system in receivership. The Receiver will regularly review the need for this system.

3 Actuarial firm Oliver Wyman Actuarial Consulting, Inc. (“Oliver Wyman”) has been engaged to 4 prepare actuarial estimates for Spirit’s claims and future losses and continues as a consultant.

5 Calhoun, Thompson & Matza, L.L.P. is a CPA firm that has been hired by the Receiver to prepare 6 Spirit’s federal and state tax returns.

7 PALOMAR FINANCIAL, LC (“Palomar”) is an affiliated company of the Special Deputy Receiver 8 and performs financial and technical administrative support services for Spirit in receivership—and 9 those services are now being performed by Palomar. Palomar is being used to facilitate the 10 receivership’s administration of financial matters. The Receiver, with assistance from Palomar, has 11 finalized all outstanding premium tax matters for the Company, including tax matters that remained 12 outstanding and overdue by former Spirit leadership at the outset of the receivership, and routine 13 reporting continues as required for certain state jurisdictions.

14 As the Court is aware, the Receiver has engaged the law firm of Greenberg Traurig LLP 15 (“Greenberg Traurig”), as counsel in this receivership matter. Additionally, as reported in the previous 16 status reports, the Receiver has engaged the services of Lewis Roca to handle certain limited matters and 17 to act as outside conflicts counsel to address other matters that may arise in which Greenberg Traurig is 18 not representing the receivership estate.

19 The Receiver has received notice from time to time of lawsuits filed against Spirit in violation of 20 the Court’s Permanent Receivership Order. The Receiver will continue its established procedure of 21 writing to the parties involved to inform them of the injunctions of the Permanent Receivership Order, 22 and to request a voluntary dismissal of Spirit from the matter. Thus far, the majority of counsel have 23 been amenable to such requests. In limited cases and only when absolutely necessary, the Receiver will 24 engage outside counsel to address ongoing or repeated violations of this Court’s orders.

1 C. Records

2 The Receiver has made efforts to secure Spirit’s electronic records from third parties. The 3 Receiver will continue with the evaluation of the Company and will continue gathering the Company’s 4 records and data. This process will remain ongoing.

5 D. Asset Recovery Litigation and Arbitration

6 On February 6, 2020, the Receiver filed an asset recovery lawsuit against a number of parties, 7 including Thomas Mulligan, CTC, Criterion, Spirit’s former directors and officers, various other former 8 vendors of Spirit, and various other related persons and entities (“Asset Recovery Lawsuit”).⁶ The Asset
9 Recovery Lawsuit was filed in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada, and assigned 10 Case No. A-20-809963-B. Although the majority of Defendants filed answers to the Asset Recovery
11 Lawsuit, CTC⁷ and Criterion Claim Solutions of Omaha, Inc. each filed Motions to Compel Arbitration
12 of the claims asserted by the Receiver in her asset recovery lawsuit. The Motions to Compel Arbitration 13 were granted by Judge Denton and thereafter nine of the defendants⁸ filed a Motion to Stay Pending 14 Arbitration, and joinders were filed by nineteen additional defendants. The Court granted the Motion to

1 Stay Pending Arbitration and the Joinders thereto and the formal Notice of Entry of Order was entered 2 on November 17, 2020.

3 On April 1, 2021, the Receiver filed a Petition for Writ of Mandamus in the Nevada Supreme 4 Court regarding, inter alia (1) the Court’s July 17, 2020, Order Granting CTC Defendants’ Motion to 5 Compel Arbitration; (2) the Court’s July 22, 2020, Order Granting Criterion Claim Solution’s Motion to 6 Compel Arbitration; and (3) the Court’s November 17, 2020, Order Granting the Motion to Stay Pending 7 Arbitration and all Joinders Thereto. On February 18, 2022, the Nevada Supreme Court denied the 8 Receiver’s petition for writ of mandamus — thereby requiring the Receiver to pursue two separate 9 arbitration proceedings to recover Spirit’s assets (i.e., while litigation against the remaining defendants 10 is stayed pending the outcome of the separate arbitration proceedings). The status of the arbitration 11 proceedings are detailed below.

12 On July 18, 2023, the Receiver filed a Motion to Lift Stay in the Asset Recovery Lawsuit based 13 on concerns regarding ongoing prejudice to the claimants of Spirit. The Motion to Lift Stay was opposed 14 by the defendants named in that matter and on September 14, 2023, the Order was entered denying the 15 Receiver’s request. Based on Judge Denton’s order, the Asset Recovery Lawsuit will, for now, remain 16 stayed as to the other defendants while the Receiver attempts to resolve the remaining arbitration 17 proceeding against CTC as expeditiously as possible.

18 The Receiver initiated arbitration against CTC on August 2, 2022 (“CTC Arbitration”). Pursuant 19 to the terms of the Program Administrator Agreement (“PSA”), the arbitration is proceeding with a 20 three-person arbitration panel. All three arbitrators have been selected.⁹ Discovery is underway in the 21 CTC Arbitration, however issues have arisen relating to the delayed production of documents by CTC.
22 Notably, CTC by and through Thomas Mulligan who is one of only two remaining employees, has failed 23 to meaningfully participate in discovery to date. Despite the arbitration starting on August 2, 2022, 24 CTC’s lethargy in discovery has caused it to produce a total of about 2,300 pages (and not documents).
25 In the Receiver’s first set of written requests for production (“RFPs”), it propounded 75 RFPs to CTC 26

27 ⁹ The arbitrators for this matter are Robert Hall, Ret. Judge Elizabeth Gonzalez, and Susan Clafin will serve as the 28 umpire. The Receiver is responsible to pay Mr. Hall’s fees and half of Ms. Clafin’s fees associated with the arbitration.
CTC will pay Judge Gonzalez’s fees and half the fees of Ms. Clafin.

1 and extended multiple extensions as a courtesy to counsel. Despite those extensions, CTC failed to 2 respond whatsoever to 72% of the RFPs, and to those it has responded to, it only produced a total of 3 about 2,300 scanned pages of documents. Even more troubling is the fact that the Receiver learned that 4 CTC made no efforts to collect any ESI prior to August of this year. While the CTC Arbitration is 5 scheduled to begin on April 29, 2024, the Receiver is concerned regarding the viability of the date given 6 CTC's gamesmanship and non-compliance. The Receiver is in the process of addressing these issues 7 within the CTC Arbitration proceeding. A status check is scheduled for September 27, 2023. The 8 Receiver will continue to keep the Court apprised of developments in this regard.

9 The Receiver submitted an arbitration demand/complaint on Criterion on August 19, 2022
10 ("Criterion Arbitration"), and Criterion filed a response on September 19, 2022. Thereafter, the parties 11 agreed to a mediation which was held on May 18, 2023. Through the mediation process, the Receiver 12 learned that Criterion has no source of income, no material assets, no clients or customers, no revenue, 13 is insolvent, has no employees (aside from Thomas Mulligan), has no applicable insurance coverage that 14 will cover the claims raised in the arbitration proceeding and has plans to resolve. As a result of the 15 same, the Receiver determined it was not beneficial to continue to pursue claims against Criterion and 16 thus the parties agreed to a Stipulated Dismissal, a copy of which was included as an Exhibit to the 17 previous Eighteenth Status Report.

18 E. Actuarial Reports

19 Oliver Wyman is an actuarial firm that was selected to prepare actuarial estimates for Spirit's 20 claims, and future losses. Oliver Wyman completed its actuarial report for Spirit as of December 31, 21 2020, and is a consultant to the Receiver regarding actuarial matters. The Receiver wrote about the 22 report in the previous Tenth Status Report.

23 F. Receivership Assets and Liabilities

24 The Receiver has been gathering information and evaluating the assets and liabilities of Spirit.
25 The Receiver's liability analysis will continue to evolve as the claims of the estate are determined, asset 26 recoveries are made, and actuary estimates of Spirit's liabilities are updated. Below is an overview of 27 some key assets and liability matters thus far identified by the Receiver.

- 1 2. CTC owes a large balance to Spirit that is at least more than $40 million and may 2 be much greater after further discovery. The Receiver filed the Asset Recovery 3 Lawsuit seeking the return of this money inter alia as detailed above and is also 4 pursuing claims in arbitration as also detailed above.
- 5 3. The cash and invested assets of the Company were approximately $32,823,515 as 6 of August 31, 2023.
- 7 4. Gross Loss and Loss Adjustment Expense (“LAE”) and General Liability Losses:
8 The gross unpaid loss & allocated LAE as of December 31, 2020, are estimated 9 at $198,663,000 by Oliver Wyman.
- 10 5. Other Assets: There is no known tangible personal property, or real property, 11 owned by the Company.

12 We are enclosing the consultants and SDR bills paid or approved for payment since the last status 13 report filed with the Court, and the detailed billings are submitted in-camera, with summaries of such 14 bills being submitted as Exhibit 2 to this report.¹⁰ The Receiver is including, as Exhibit 3 attached

17 ¹⁰ The in-camera materials are being submitted in a separate envelope that reflect paid invoices. Certain billings 18 submitted to the Court are appropriate for in-camera review (as opposed to being made part of a public filing). More 19 particularly, and as discussed in further detail below, certain consultants in this matter will provide expert witness related 20 services. As such, the billing entries relating thereto should be considered confidential and/or otherwise not subject to 21 discovery.

22 In this regard, courts have held that the bills of legal counsel and experts may be withheld from legal discovery and 23 are not subject to legal disclosure, as this information may provide indications or context concerning potential litigation
24 strategy and the nature of the expert services being provided. See, e.g., Avnet, Inc. v. Avana Technologies Inc., No. 2:13-25 cv-00929-GMN-PAL, 2014 WL 6882345, at *1 (D. Nev. Dec. 4, 2014) (finding that billing entries were privileged because 26 they reveal a party’s strategy and the nature of services provided); Fed. Sav. & Loan Ins. Corp. v. Ferm, 909 F.2d 372, 374-27 75 (9th Cir. 1990) (considering whether or not fee information revealed counsel’s mental impressions concerning litigation 28 strategy). Other courts that have addressed this issue have recognized that the “attorney-client privilege embraces attorney time, records and statements to the extent that they reveal litigation strategy and the nature of the services provided.” Real
v. Cont’l Grp., Inc., 116 F.R.D. 211, 213 (N.D. Cal. 1986).

 The in-camera review should apply not only to documentation concerning attorney fees, but it also extends to “details of work revealed in [an] expert’s work description [which] would relate to tasks for which she [or he] was compensated[.]” a situation which is “analogous to protecting attorney-client privileged information contained in counsel’s bills describing work performed.” See DaVita Healthcare Partners, Inc. v. United States, 128 Fed. Cl. 584, 592-93 (2016); see also Chaudhry v. Gallerizzo, 174 F.3d 394, 402 (4th Cir. 1999) (recognizing that “correspondence, bills, ledgers, statements, and time records which also reveal the motive of the client in seeking representation, litigation strategy, or the specific nature of the services provided, such as researching particular areas of law,” are protected from disclosure) (quoting Clarke v. Am. Commerce Nat’l Bank, 974 F.2d 127, 129 (9th Cir. 1992)).

1 hereto, a cash flow report for August 31, 2023, reflecting recoveries, disbursements, and cash flow since 2 the receivership began.
